Rain jacket

Performance, durability and style. The high-tech materials we used for this jacket (a laminated fabric) provide it with remarkably high performances in terms of breathability and waterproofness and a great handle for such a heavy-duty jacket. It has a perfect fitting (sizes starting from XS), an attractive design and is available in a broad range of colours. The perfect choice for companies who want to equip their employees with premium quality and corporate design. Tornhill can be combined with several linings available in the same colours so as to make sure your corporate identity is visible in every clothing layer.
